

The Morning Herald.

Tuesday, October 1, 1872.

Irish Republicans wish an easy victory in their November, let them only put in their best efforts, and strike their heavy blows from now till the sun sets on Tuesday next. McClure admits that if Harrison is next, McClure admits that it is dead as a man.

GREELEY's abuse of the soldiers at Pittsburg will cost him thousands of votes all over the North. It has already begun to recoil on the old standard, as will be seen by the dignified tribute administered by Gen. Burnside to H. G. for his "standards of service." We give elsewhere Burnside's letter's words:

"We give in another column a list of the candidates for State offices, and for Gov. and the Congressmen to be voted for at the coming election. The present political status of the Legislature is also given.

The article which we take from the New York Times, will be worth keeping to compare with the result on Tuesday next. We shall then see how much the tidal wave has gone back on those who started it up.

We receive the most stirring intelligence from all parts of the country of the unity and enthusiasm in the Republican ranks. The chairman of the County Committee is the right man in the right place. There will be ten meetings in the county each night this week till after the election. Our Crawford will elect every man whose name is written on the Republican ticket by a majority of one thousand to fifteen hundred.

E. D. DUDLEY, Secretary.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Patrick Lee, the hermit, exhibited his son and daughter this morning in men's wear, and both will probably die. He was arrested after a terrible struggle. J. A. COWADALLER, President.

The Evening Press show as bright as an evening star last night. May it never set!

ANOTHER STRAW.—On the Lake Shore train west yesterday a vote taken gave Grant 60, Greeley 55, not voting, 23; but on the same train were 47 delegates going to Dunkirk to attend a Greeley Democratic Liberal Convention. ***

We regret to learn that the family of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Tracy have been delayed by the loss of little Kitty, their youngest child. The funeral services will be held at the residence, East Main street, at hour o'clock this afternoon. ***

THE OTHER DAY a lady correspondent of the Herald wrote her impressions of the Republican mass meeting held at the hall in town, and concluded with great enthusiasm: "The signature was elsewhere," and the Courier was mean enough to say that our correspondent had better leave the letters "e" out of her name. This is, we suppose, what the Courier writes, but with decent people it will be hard to find blackguardism, all the more vulgar because it was a coarse fling at a lady. ***

Mr. John M. Funk's announcement of a new and improved line of clothing for our ladies who are out shopping. This establishment has a reputation for entire reliability in every class of goods that enters their counters, and has been a highly-favored place for trading ever since its doors were first thrown open to the public. We will not attempt an enumeration of the new and desirable classes of fabrics that will be offered for sale today, preferring to call attention to Mr. Funk's announcement in another column. ***

COLEMAN'S BAND.—Coleman's Band yesterday received four additional instruments from the Boston Manufacturing Company. They are of solid German silver of the very finest quality and tone, and are respectively as follows: Solo alto, baritone, Eb bass, and Eb bassoon. These additions make the band now comprise eighteen instruments, and the members, in addition to their passing a high degree of musical talent, have undergone long and severe training. They will shortly receive new uniforms. ***

A PAIR OF HORSES FELL INTO STREET NEAR HILL.—About eight o'clock last night the driver of one of Ed. Brown's carriages, on his way with a party to Pleasantville, drove the horses into a ditch, and seven feet deep, opposite the Union Retired Guards' Club, on Pine street. The tread had been opened during the day, and extended half-way across the street. There was no light to indicate the danger, and if a man so accustomed to the streets fell into the trap, the stranger would stand but a slight chance of being able to avoid it. Red lanterns should mark the boundary of all open trenches at night. Very fortunately no one was injured on this occasion, but it there had been any injured parties would have a good claim for damages. ***

SHAMBURG HEARD FROM.—The producers of the Twelfth district held a meeting at Temperance Hall, Shamburgh, at two o'clock yesterday. It was unanimously resolved to shut down all pumping and drilling wells at noon to-day. The entire production of this district will therefore be shut down. ***

PRODUCERS' MEETING TO-DAY.—There will be a meeting of all the producers large and small, of this district (comprising Titusville, Church run, Watson's hills, Enterprise, Colorado, National, Hallbrook, Davis farms, Netherton and Pleasantville, and vicinity, Brown, Hebert, Vestal, Tiernow & Wrigglestone Farms,) to be held at the Marshal's Block, Democratic Club rooms, at 2 p.m., this Tuesday, October 1st, for the purpose of organization and for other important business. Producers, be sure and attend. —S. Q. Bowers, Pres.

THE TELEGRAPH AND THE HERALD.—The telegraph is a blessing in many ways; it is nearly true; that it shows its greatest blessings on the reading public is not only manifestly but pre-eminently true, as the Herald of this morning clearly testifies. News from all parts of the world are spread before the reader, and the heart is greatly cheered by the heroic special dispatches from neighboring towns, distinctly and faithfully collected by our correspondents, and forwarded with scrupulous care by the excellent operators which the Western Union Telegraph Company has installed in the offices of the region. As an index of civilization the telegraph is not only unique removes from the press, its powerful, and, as an index of commercial prosperity, is nearly infallible. Viewed this right, it may not be called the "newspaper of the world." Western Union Telegraph office in this city did, yesterday, the largest day's business that far during the present year, the Herald specials contributing not a little to swell the volume of it. Titusville, in this as well as other local matters, bears of the palm, and an allusion to it is but simple justice to the faithful workers who render such a statement possible. ***

SALE OF OIL PAINTINGS.—A sale of oil paintings by various artists will take place last evening at No. 31 Franklin street. The collection was brought from Philadelphia, and was placed on exhibition so that the buyers of art might see what the pictures were before they were offered for sale. The collection numbered fifty-four pictures, of which sixteen were sold last evening as follows:

"Autumn on the Upper Missouri," by F. W. Wistart, to Mr. D. P. Fisher, $200.

"The Half-way House," by George F. Benét, to Mr. D. P. Fisher, $150.

"View on Lake George," by N. C. Williams, to Mr. R. D. Fletcher, $34.00.

"The Civil Marriage," by Carl Hubert, to Mr. H. C. Bass, $20.00.

"Castle of Lucan," by Charles Beaumont, to Mr. Compton, $8.00.

"Cattle and Landscape," by Herman Simon, to Mr. Compton, $3.00.

"After Dinner," by Carl Hubert, to Mr. Compton, $2.00.

"Indian Falls, opposite West Point," by Charles Beaumont, to Mr. Frey, $25.00.

"American Autumn," by George F. Benét, to Mr. D. P. Fletcher, $30.00.

"The Sentinel Rock," (Yosemite Valley,) by George F. Benét, to Mr. Compton, $45.00.

"Evening in the Sherwood," by Charles Beaumont, to Mr. Pickering, $21.00.

"The Coming Storm," by George F. Benét, to Mr. McMullen, $21.50.

"Landscape and Cattle," by S. P. Dyke, to Dr. F. Fletcher, $35.00.

This concluded the sale for last evening. The balance of the collection will be offered for sale this evening at the same place.

THE PRODUCERS' VICTORY.

Telegrams have been received from all parts of the Region to the effect that the wells, both drilling and pumping, have already shut down or will be entirely suppressed within the next twenty-four hours. That the pledges will be carried out in good faith, there is not the slightest shadow of doubt, and each man relies upon the honor of the other as he does upon his own. This is extremely gratifying and must be particularly so to the producers, as indicating a most complete victory over themselves and that they have at last become masters of the situation. Great popular excitement and revolutions generally began

as soon as evidence by the ignorant and lawless,

and in this case, I regret to say that a slight outbreak of this disposition has taken place in the lower districts, as will be found reported by telegraph.

At the same time we have seen private telegrams from most of the districts severely condemning any overt act of this description, or any attempt to coerce the few who have obstinately refused to join the body of the producers in the great movement of self protection. There is nothing to be gained and everything to be lost by a breach of the law in such cases. There are other more potent means of effecting the same end,

which the leaders have been more thoroughly prepared.

That delusive financial barometer, the market, has been wonderfully affected since the commencement of the movement.

Another straw—On the Lake Shore

train west yesterday a vote taken gave

Grant 60, Greeley 55, not voting, 23; but on the same train were 47 delegates going to Dunkirk to attend a Greeley Democratic Liberal Convention. ***

layed by the loss of little Kitty, their youngest child. The funeral services will
